

NOTES

1. Insulated multicore armoured cable, P.V.C or XLPE shall be connection point used for all underground installations between BL&P and meter
2. Cable to be installed by customer and left at base of pole. B.L.P.C will run cable up the pole and connect to L.T mains. This should be adequate to extend 600mm above top LT line or at least 8.5 metres from ground.
3. Meter socket to be installed in a location accessible to meter readers.
4. Meter socket to be designed that the incoming line ends cannot be accessed through any unsealed part of the meter socket.

UNDERGROUND SERVICE CONNECTION FROM OVERHEAD NETWORK

FIG 9